Re: Tyler Technologies, Inc. v. New York State Department of Taxation and Finance, et al.
NDNY; 22-cv-877 (DNH/DJS)

Dear Judge Stewart:

I am writing to Your Honor at the mutual request of all parties. On October 4, 2022, Defendants advised the Court that all parties are in agreement that they would like an opportunity to engage in discussions to resolve this matter. In light of this agreement, the Court granted Defendants an extension of time until January 17, 2023 to file a response to the Complaint or advise the Court of the status of their discussions to reach a resolution.

The parties have held an initial meeting and are scheduled to meet again next week to continue their discussions to reach a resolution. The parties' Civil Case Management Plan is due, however, on November 21, 2022, and the Court's Rule 16 Conference is scheduled for one week later, on November 28, 2022. The parties request that these deadlines be suspended while their discussions continue, and, if their efforts to resolve this litigation prove unsuccessful, that these deadlines be reestablished for dates after January 17, 2023, when Defendants' response to the Complaint would be due.

The parties thank the Court for its consideration.

Respectfully,

Bruce D. Feldman
